Learn to identify wild flowers through their families. Build your confidence in using keys. Expert tutors from the Botanical Society of Britain & Ireland lead these accessible and popular workshops.

Participant Fee £25
Full-time Students £17
BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL

For more information and booking, see the website bsbi.org.uk/scotland or contact Liz at eldlavery@outlook.com

On 23 June, in the Glasgow area, we are running a second-level workshop: IDENTIFYING COMMON GRASSES. Suitable for all who are confident in identifying wild flower families. Look out for details on the website and elsewhere.

FIELD MEETINGS

Especially for participants (past and present) of the workshops and for anyone else interested in improving their skills and confidence in identifying wild flowers in the field.

No charge for the day, but booking essential.

SATURDAY 28 JULY St Cyrus National Nature Reserve, near Montrose
SATURDAY 4 AUGUST Ballinluig, on the River Tay, Perthshire

Both field meetings will be led by Faith Anstey
