Draft minutes of the BSBI Scottish AGM 2018

Ian Strachan welcomed everyone, as Chair of the committee of Scotland, to the AGM which was held at RBGE on 3 November 2018.

Minutes of the AGM held on 3rd November 2017 had been circulated and were approved (proposed Robin Payne, seconded Pat Batty).

Committee for Scotland – Robin Payne, Sandy Edwards, Faith Anstey and Angus Hannah were all retiring, having served six-year terms. Ian thanked all four for their valuable contributions. He was pleased to report that Angus was willing to continue in his role as editor of the Scottish Newsletter, and Faith in her role on the Outreach Sub-committee.

Three new members had been proposed: John Crossley (proposed by Ian Strachan and Robin Payne), David Elston (proposed by David Welsh and Ian Francis) and Liz Lavery (proposed by Aileen Meek and Robin Payne). Liz Lavery is willing to take on the role of Secretary. All three nominations were approved, together with the remaining committee members: Ian Strachan (Chair), Lindsay Mackinlay (Vice-chair), Aileen Meek (Meetings secretary), Natalie Harmsworth, Liz Kungu and Alan Walker.

Scottish Officer report: Jim McIntosh presented his annual review. Highlights included:

- All our rare plant data has been supplied to Forest Enterprise Scotland, hopefully to inform forestry proposals and operations in Scotland.
- Scottish Recording Conferences – two one-day events were held in April in Edinburgh and Strathpeffer, including workshops on bladderworts and deergrasses attracted a total of 48 participants.
- Plant Families ID workshops - 29 beginners attended workshops in Aberdeen and Dumfries. Two grasses workshops also held. Thanks are due to Faith Anstey, Chris Miles, Aileen Meek and the many tutors.
- Two productive recording weeks held, in Wigtownshire and Westernness.
- Help provided to Millennium Seed Bank project, including data provision as well as seed collection.
- Local recording groups are doing much excellent work, with two new groups in 2018, in Fife and East Lothian.
- SNH support for Jim's post had been renewed for a further year in April, together with funding to digitise their Site Condition Monitoring rare plant data. Gratitude was expressed to SNH, RBGE, and the BSBI's members and donors.
- VCRs – Matt Harding has been appointed as joint recorder for Stirling, and David Elston as joint recorder for North Aberdeenshire and Kincardine.

Chair's report: Ian expressed thanks to the committee for their work over the year, as well as to Jim as Scottish Officer, and to Scottish VCRs and members for their efforts and support. The 40th annual Scottish Newsletter was published in the spring, for which Angus Hannah was thanked as editor. Ian paid tribute to Walter Scott who had died in February. He had been Vice-county Recorder for Shetland from 1961 to 2015 and had made a huge contribution to botany in Scotland.

BSBI submitted an objection to the application for a golf course at Coull Links due to its likely impact on a nationally important sand dune site and its flora. A Public Local Inquiry is to be held in February 2019.

Field meetings: A recording week based at Whitebridge in Easternness and a BSBI / BSS Alpine Field Meeting at Ben Cruachan are planned in June 2019. Several field meeting reports for 2018 are still due. Recorders are encouraged to contact Aileen Meek, Field Meetings Secretary, if they would like to arrange meetings to help with Atlas recording.

There was no other business.
