

Bramble recording in Scotland up to 2023

Shaded areas are above 300m Squares entirely above that altitude have few or no brambles.

Green circles show where batologists have been active.

Areas with larger red circles show rich bramble ground awaiting exploration.