ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

BOTANICAL SOCIETY OF BRITAIN AND IRELAND

As amended 24 July 2013
ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF
BOTANICAL SOCIETY OF BRITAIN AND IRELAND

1. Objects

1.1 The Objects of the Charity are:
1.1.1 To promote the study of, and interest in, the British and Irish vascular plant and charophyte flora.
1.1.2 To support, encourage, carry out and participate in research into the taxonomy, ecology, biogeography and conservation of the British and Irish flora and to co-operate with Continental and other botanists in matters of mutual interest and concern.

1.2 This provision may be amended by special resolution but only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

2. Powers

The Charity has the following powers, which may be exercised only in promoting the Objects:

2.1 to provide advice or information;
2.2 to undertake research;
2.3 to co-operate with other bodies;
2.4 to support, administer or set up other charities;
2.5 to accept gifts and to raise funds;
2.6 to borrow money;
2.7 to give security for loans or other obligations (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act);
2.8 to acquire or hire property of any kind;
2.9 to let or dispose of property of any kind (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act);
2.10 to set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure;
2.11 to deposit or invest its funds in any manner (but to invest only after obtaining such advice from a financial expert as the Trustees consider necessary and having regard to the suitability of investments and the need for diversification);
2.12 to delegate the management of investments to a financial expert, but only on terms that:

2.12.1 the investment policy is set down in writing for the financial expert by the Trustees;
2.12.2 timely reports of all transactions are provided to the Trustees;
2.12.3 the performance of the investments is reviewed regularly with the Trustees;
2.12.4 the Trustees are entitled to cancel the delegation arrangement at any time;
2.12.5 the investment policy and the delegation arrangement are reviewed at least once a year;
2.12.6 all payments due to the financial expert are on a scale or at a level which is agreed in advance and are notified promptly to the Trustees on receipt; and
2.12.7 the financial expert must not do anything outside the powers of the Charity;

2.13 to arrange for investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee company acting under the direction of the Trustees or controlled by a financial expert acting under their instructions, and to pay any reasonable fee required;
2.14 to deposit documents and physical assets with any company registered or having a place of business in England or Wales as custodian, and to pay any reasonable fee required;
2.15 to insure the property of the Charity against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies to protect the Charity when required;
2.16 subject to Article 6.3, to employ paid or unpaid agents, staff, contractors or advisors;
2.17 to enter into contracts to provide services to or on behalf of other bodies;
2.18 to establish or acquire subsidiary companies;
2.19 to do anything else within the law which promotes or helps to promote the Objects.

3. The Trustees

3.1 The Trustees as charity trustees have control of the Charity and its property and funds.
3.2 The subscribers to the Memorandum (being the first Members) are also the first Trustees. Subsequent Trustees are elected by the Members or co-opted by the Trustees.
3.3 The Trustees when complete consist of at least seven and not more than twelve persons who being individuals are over the age of 18, all of whom must support the Objects.
3.4 A Trustee may not act as a Trustee unless he/she:

   3.4.1 is a Member; and
   3.4.2 has signed a written declaration of willingness to act as a charity trustee of the Charity.
3.5 One third (or the number nearest one third) of the Trustees must retire at each AGM, those longest in office (where applicable, since re-election) retiring first and the choice between any of equal service being made by drawing lots at the last meeting of the Trustees in any year.
3.6 A retiring Trustee shall be eligible for re-election up to a maximum period of nine years' continuous service (adding or subtracting up to no more than three months if necessary to allow for retirement at the next AGM). All retiring Trustees who are not re-elected or who have served a continuous period of nine years shall be ineligible for re-election for three years.
3.7 A Trustee's term of office as such automatically terminates if he/she:

   3.7.1 is disqualified under the Charities Act from acting as a charity trustee;
   3.7.2 is incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his/her own affairs;
   3.7.3 is absent without notice from three consecutive meetings of the Trustees and is asked by a majority of the other Trustees to resign; or
   3.7.4 resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office); or 3.7.5 is removed by the Members at a general meeting under the Companies Act.
3.8 The Trustees may at any time co-opt any individual who is eligible under Article 3.3 as a Trustee to fill a vacancy in their number or (subject to the maximum number permitted by Article 3.3) as an additional Trustee, but a co-opted Trustee holds office only until the next AGM.
3.9 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

4. Trustees' proceedings

4.1 The Trustees must hold at least four meetings each year.
4.2 A quorum at a meeting of the Trustees is at least five or one half of the Trustees (if greater).
4.3 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants but at least one meeting in each year must be held in person.
4.4 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.

4.5 Any issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a resolution in writing agreed by all the Trustees (other than any Conflicted Trustee who has not been authorised to vote) is as valid as a resolution passed at a meeting. For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document.

4.6 Every Trustee has one vote on each issue but, in case of equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

4.7 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

5. Trustees’ powers
The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity in their capacity as Trustees:

5.1 To appoint (and remove) any person (who may be a Trustee) to act as Secretary in accordance with the Companies Act.

5.2 To appoint a Chairman, a Treasurer, a General Secretary and other honorary officers from among their number.

5.3 To delegate any of their functions to committees consisting of two or more individuals appointed by them. At least one member of every committee must be a Trustee and all proceedings of committees must be reported promptly to the Trustees.

5.4 To make standing orders consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern proceedings at general meetings.

5.5 To make rules consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern their proceedings and proceedings of committees.

5.6 To make regulations consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern the administration of the Charity and the use of its seal (if any).

5.7 To establish procedures to assist the resolution of disputes or differences within the Charity.

5.8 To exercise in their capacity as Trustees any powers of the Charity which are not reserved to the Members.

6. Benefits and Conflicts
The property and funds of the Charity must be used only for promoting the Objects and do not belong to the Members but:

6.1 Members who are not Trustees or Connected Persons may be employed by or enter into contracts with the Charity and receive reasonable payment for goods or services supplied; and,

Subject to compliance with Article 6.4:

6.1.2 Members (being Trustees) and Connected Persons may be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Charity; and

6.1.3 Members (being Trustees) and Connected Persons may be paid a reasonable rent or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Charity.

6.2 A Trustee must not receive any payment of money or other material benefit (whether directly or indirectly) from the Charity except:

6.2.1 as mentioned in Articles 6.1 or 6.3;

6.2.2 reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in running the Charity;

6.2.3 the benefit of indemnity insurance as permitted by the Charities Act;
6.2.4 an indemnity in respect of any liabilities properly incurred in running the Charity (including the costs of a successful defence to criminal proceedings);

6.2.5 in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written consent of the Commission in advance and where required by the Companies Act the approval or affirmation of the Members).

6.3 No Trustee or Connected Person may be employed by the Charity except in accordance with Article 6.2.5, but any Trustee or Connected Person may enter into a contract with the Charity, as permitted by the Charities Act, to supply services or services and associated goods in return for a payment or other material benefit but only if:

6.3.1 the services or services and associated goods are actually required by the Charity, and the Trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the Charity to enter into such a contract;

6.3.2 the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set in accordance with the procedure in Article 6.4; and

6.3.3 fewer than half of the Trustees are subject to such a contract in any financial year.

6.4 Subject to Clause 6.5, any Trustee who becomes a Conflicted Trustee in relation to any matter must:

6.4.1 declare the nature and extent of his or her interest before discussion begins on the matter;

6.4.2 withdraw from the meeting for that item after providing any information requested by the Trustees;

6.4.3 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and 6.4.4 be absent during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

6.5 When any Trustee is a Conflicted Trustee, the Trustees who are not Conflicted Trustees, if they form a quorum without counting the Conflicted Trustee and are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to do so, may by resolution passed in the absence of the Conflicted Trustee authorise the Conflicted Trustee, notwithstanding any conflict of interest or duty which has arisen or may arise for the Conflicted Trustee, to:

6.5.1 continue to participate in discussions leading to the making of a decision and/or to vote, or

6.5.2 disclose to a third party information confidential to the Charity, or

6.5.3 take any other action not otherwise authorised which does not involve the receipt by the Conflicted Trustee or a Connected Person of any payment or material benefit from the Charity or 6.5.4 refrain from taking any step required to remove the conflict.

6.6 This provision may be amended by special resolution but, where the result would be to permit any material benefit to a Trustee or Connected Person, only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

7. Records and Accounts

7.1 The Trustees must comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and of the Charities Act as to keeping records, the audit or independent examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Commission of information required by law including:

7.1.1 annual returns;

7.1.2 annual reports; and

7.1.3 annual statements of account.
7.2 The Trustees must also keep records of:

7.2.1 all proceedings at meetings of the Trustees;
7.2.2 all resolutions in writing;
7.2.3 all reports of committees; and
7.2.4 all professional advice obtained.

7.3 Accounting records relating to the Charity must be made available for inspection by any Trustee at any time during normal office hours and may be made available for inspection by Members who are not Trustees if the Trustees so approve.

7.4 A copy of the Charity’s constitution and latest available statement of account must be supplied on request to any Trustee. Copies of the latest accounts must also be supplied in accordance with the Charities Act to any other person who makes a written request and pays the Charity’s reasonable costs.

8. Membership
8.1 The Charity must maintain a register of Members.
8.2 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first Members.
8.3 Membership is open to any person interested in furthering the Objects and approved by the Trustees.
8.4 The form and the procedure for applying for Membership is to be prescribed by the Trustees.
8.5 Membership is not transferable.

9. General Meetings
9.1 Members are entitled to attend general meetings in person or by proxy (but only if the appointment of a proxy is in writing and notified to the Charity before the commencement of the meeting).
9.2 General meetings are called on at least 14 and not more than 28 clear days’ written notice indicating the business to be discussed and (if a special resolution is to be proposed) setting out the terms of the proposed special resolution.
9.3 There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of Members present in person or by proxy is at least thirty.
9.4 The chairman at a general meeting shall be the Chairman of the Trustees or in default any Trustee present and elected by the Members present in person or by proxy in his/her personal capacity as a Member and not as proxy for another Member.
9.5 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Act, every issue is decided by ordinary resolution.
9.6 Every Member present in person or by proxy has one vote on each issue.
9.7 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Act, a written resolution (whether an ordinary or a special resolution) is as valid as an equivalent resolution passed at a general meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document.
9.8 Except at first, the Charity must hold an AGM in every year. The first AGM must be held within 18 months after the Charity’s incorporation.
9.9 Members must annually at the AGM:
9.9.1 receive the accounts of the Charity for the previous financial year;
9.9.2 receive a written report on the Charity’s activities;
9.9.3 be informed of the retirement of those Trustees who wish to retire or who are retiring by rotation;
9.9.4 elect Trustees to fill the vacancies arising;
9.9.5 appoint independent examiners or auditors for the Charity;
9.10 Members may also from time to time:
9.10.1 confer on any individual (with his/her consent) the honorary title of Patron, President or Vice-President of the Charity; and 9.10.2 discuss and determine any issues of policy or deal with any other business put before them by the Trustees.

9.11 A general meeting may be called by the Trustees at any time and must be called within 21 days of a written request from one or more Trustees (being Members), or at least 5% of the Membership.

9.12 A technical defect in the appointment of a Member of which the Members are unaware at the time does not invalidate a decision taken at a general meeting or a Written Resolution.

10. The Council

10.1 There shall be a Council of the Charity which shall advise the Trustees of the Charity.

10.2 The Council of the Charity shall consist of:
   (a) twenty elected Members or such other number as shall be resolved by the Members in General Meeting;
   (b) a President who shall be elected in that capacity at Annual General Meeting and whose term shall be two or three years and a President-elect also elected in that capacity at Annual General Meeting one year or more in advance of election as President;
   (c) Any person co-opted in accordance with the provisions contained in Article 10.6.

10.3 No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Council unless a quorum of not less than five of the elected Council members is present. If present, the President shall take the chair or otherwise any Council member nominated by the President, or if none is nominated, meeting the approval of a majority of the Council members present. Any or all Trustees who are not members of Council are entitled to attend meetings of Council and Council may request the attendance of any Trustee or Member. For the avoidance of doubt, a Trustee may also be a Council member provided that such persons shall not exceed two in number.

10.4 Elections of Members to serve on the Council shall take place annually and the term of office shall commence and terminate at the Annual General Meeting.

10.4.1 One third (or the number nearest one third) of the Members elected to serve on the Council must retire at each AGM, those longest in office (where applicable, since re-election) retiring first and the choice between any of equal service being made by drawing lots at the last meeting of Council in any year.

10.4.2 Nominations for vacancies thus arising shall be made in writing on an appropriate form signed by the candidate and countersigned by two nominating Members and must be received by the General Secretary on or before 31st January in any year. A list of Members nominated shall be issued to each eligible Member who shall be entitled to vote in person or by written proxy at the following Annual General Meeting.

10.4.3 A retiring Council member shall be eligible for re-election up to a maximum period of nine years’ continuous service (adding or subtracting up to no more than three months if necessary to allow for retirement at the next AGM). All retiring Council members who are not re-elected or who have served a continuous period of nine years shall be ineligible for re-election for three years but may be co-opted subject to the provisions contained in Article 10.6 of these Articles.

10.5 In the event of any casual vacancy arising on the Council by reason of death or retirement of an elected member reported to the Honorary Secretary in any year the Council may at its next meeting elect to fill such at its discretion. Notwithstanding the normal term any person elected to a casual vacancy shall serve only until the next Annual General Meeting and then be eligible for re-election under the terms of Article 10.4.
10.6 The Council shall have the power at any time and from time to time to co-opt no more than five persons and all such co-opted Members shall be entitled to vote at meetings of the Council. In exercising this power, Council shall have regard to the geographical distribution of the membership as compared to the elected Council members. The co-option shall be for a period not exceeding one year, but may be renewed at the Annual General Meeting. A co-opted member shall cease to be eligible for renewal of co-option after nine years’ total service.

11. Limited Liability
The liability of Members is limited.

12. Guarantee
Every Member promises, if the Charity is dissolved while he/she remains a Member or within one year after he/she ceases to be a member, to pay up to £1 towards:

12.1 payment of those debts and liabilities of the Charity incurred before he/she ceased to be a Member;
12.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and 12.3 the adjustment of rights of contributors among themselves.

13. Communications
13.1 Notices and other documents to be served on Members or Trustees under the Articles or the Companies Act may be served:

13.1.1 by hand;
13.1.2 by post;
13.1.3 by suitable electronic means; or
13.1.4 through publication in the Charity’s newsletter; or 13.1.5 through publication on the Charity’s website.

13.2 The only address at which a Member is entitled to receive notices sent by post is an address shown in the register of Members.

13.3 Any notice given in accordance with these Articles is to be treated for all purposes as having been received:

13.3.1 24 hours after being sent by electronic means or posted on the Charity’s website or delivered by hand to the relevant address;
13.3.2 three clear days after being sent by first class post to that address;
13.3.3 four clear days after being sent by second class or overseas post to that address;
13.3.4 immediately on being handed to the recipient personally; or, if earlier;
13.3.5 as soon as the recipient acknowledges actual receipt.

13.4 A technical defect in service of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

14. Dissolution
14.1 If the Charity is dissolved, the assets (if any) remaining after providing for all its liabilities must be applied in one or more of the following ways:

14.1.1 by transfer to one or more other bodies established for exclusively charitable purposes within, the same as or similar to the Objects;
14.1.2 directly for the Objects or for charitable purposes which are within or similar to the Objects;
14.1.3 in such other manner consistent with charitable status as the Commission approves in writing in advance.

14.2 Nothing in these articles of association shall authorise an application of the property of the charity for purposes which are not charitable in accordance with section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
14.3 A final report and statement of account must be sent to the Commission.
14.4 This provision may be amended by special resolution but only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

15. Interpretation
15.1 The Articles are to be interpreted without reference to the model articles under the Companies Act, which do not apply to the Charity.
